

Federation for Self-financing Tertiary Education (FSTE)

Joint Teacher Training and Staff Development Project

Synopses of Induction Programme

Aims:  To provide participants a general picture of the Sector, including the position of the Sector in the Hong Kong education system, expectations of the target students and the working environment  Class There will be a total of 3 identical classes. Details are as follows:  15 th October 2011 – 29 th October 2011 (Saturdays) 18 th October 2011 – 1 st November 2011 (Tuesdays) 19 th October 2011 – 2 nd November 2011 (Wednesdays)  Participants can enroll in any one of the class.  Structure of the The Programme will have three sessions of two hours each		T
Aims:  To provide participants a general picture of the Sector, including the position of the Sector in the Hong Kong education system, expectations of the target students and the working environment  Class  There will be a total of 3 identical classes. Details are as follows:  15 th October 2011 – 29 th October 2011 (Saturdays) 18 th October 2011 – 1 st November 2011 (Tuesdays) 19 th October 2011 – 2 nd November 2011 (Wednesdays)  Participants can enroll in any one of the class.  Structure of the  Programme:  The Programme will have three sessions of two hours each making a total of 6 hours. The foci and learning outcomes of the three sessions are as followings:  Session 1 (2 hours): The learning and teaching at the self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong After the session, participants will be able to: a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree	Target	Full-time and part-time teaching staff join the self-financed
Aims:  To provide participants a general picture of the Sector, including the position of the Sector in the Hong Kong education system, expectations of the target students and the working environment  Class  There will be a total of 3 identical classes. Details are as follows:  15 th October 2011 – 29 th October 2011 (Saturdays) 18 th October 2011 – 1 st November 2011 (Tuesdays) 19 th October 2011 – 2 nd November 2011 (Wednesdays)  Participants can enroll in any one of the class.  Structure of the  Programme:  The Programme will have three sessions of two hours each making a total of 6 hours. The foci and learning outcomes of the three sessions are as followings:  Session 1 (2 hours): The learning and teaching at the self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong After the session, participants will be able to: a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree	participants:	sub-degree and top-up degree sector (the Sector) for the first including the position of the Sector in the Hong Kong education system, expectations of the target students and the working environment  Class  There will be a total of 3 identical classes. Details are as follows:  15 th October 2011 – 29 th October 2011 (Saturdays) 18 th October 2011 – 1 st November 2011 (Tuesdays) 19 th October 2011 – 2 nd November 2011 (Wednesdays)  Participants can enroll in any one of the class.  Structure of the  Programme:  The Programme will have three sessions of two hours each making a total of 6 hours. The foci and learning outcomes of the three sessions are as followings:  Session 1 (2 hours): The learning and teaching at the self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong After the session, participants will be able to: a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree		time system, expectations of the target students and the working environment  There will be a total of 3 identical classes. Details are as follows:  15 th October 2011 – 29 th October 2011 (Saturdays) 18 th October 2011 – 1 st November 2011 (Tuesdays) 19 th October 2011 – 2 nd November 2011 (Wednesdays)  Participants can enroll in any one of the class.  Structure of the Programme:  The Programme will have three sessions of two hours each making a total of 6 hours. The foci and learning outcomes of the three sessions are as followings:  Session 1 (2 hours): The learning and teaching at the self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong After the session, participants will be able to: a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree	Aims:	To provide participants a general picture of the Sector, Class arrangement:  15 th October 2011 – 29 th October 2011 (Saturdays) 18 th October 2011 – 1 st November 2011 (Tuesdays) 19 th October 2011 – 2 nd November 2011 (Wednesdays)  Participants can enroll in any one of the class.  Structure of the Programme:  The Programme will have three sessions of two hours each making a total of 6 hours. The foci and learning outcomes of the three sessions are as followings:  Session 1 (2 hours): The learning and teaching at the self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong After the session, participants will be able to: a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree		including the position of the Sector in the Hong Kong education
There will be a total of 3 identical classes. Details are as follows:  15 th October 2011 – 29 th October 2011 (Saturdays) 18 th October 2011 – 1 st November 2011 (Tuesdays) 19 th October 2011 – 2 nd November 2011 (Wednesdays)  Participants can enroll in any one of the class.  Structure of the Programme:  The Programme will have three sessions of two hours each making a total of 6 hours. The foci and learning outcomes of the three sessions are as followings:  Session 1 (2 hours): The learning and teaching at the self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong After the session, participants will be able to: a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree		system, expectations of the target students and the working arrangement:  15 th October 2011 – 29 th October 2011 (Saturdays)  18 th October 2011 – 1 st November 2011 (Tuesdays)  19 th October 2011 – 2 nd November 2011 (Wednesdays)  Participants can enroll in any one of the class.  Structure of the  Programme:  The Programme will have three sessions of two hours each making a total of 6 hours. The foci and learning outcomes of the three sessions are as followings:  Session 1 (2 hours): The learning and teaching at the self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong  After the session, participants will be able to:  a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system  b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students  c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree		environment
15 th October 2011 – 29 th October 2011 (Saturdays)  18 th October 2011 – 1 st November 2011 (Tuesdays)  19 th October 2011 – 2 nd November 2011 (Wednesdays)  Participants can enroll in any one of the class.  Structure of the  Programme:  The Programme will have three sessions of two hours each making a total of 6 hours. The foci and learning outcomes of the three sessions are as followings:  Session 1 (2 hours): The learning and teaching at the self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong  After the session, participants will be able to:  a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system  b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students  c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree	Class	There will be a total of 3 identical classes. Details are as follows:
18 th October 2011 – 1 st November 2011 (Tuesdays)  19 th October 2011 – 2 nd November 2011 (Wednesdays)  Participants can enroll in any one of the class.  Structure of the Programme will have three sessions of two hours each making a total of 6 hours. The foci and learning outcomes of the three sessions are as followings:  Session 1 (2 hours): The learning and teaching at the self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong After the session, participants will be able to:  a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system  b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students  c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree	arrangement:
Participants can enroll in any one of the class.  Structure of the Programme will have three sessions of two hours each making a total of 6 hours. The foci and learning outcomes of the three sessions are as followings:  Session 1 (2 hours): The learning and teaching at the self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong After the session, participants will be able to:  a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system  b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students  c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree		15 th October 2011 – 29 th October 2011 (Saturdays)
Participants can enroll in any one of the class.  The Programme will have three sessions of two hours each making a total of 6 hours. The foci and learning outcomes of the three sessions are as followings:  Session 1 (2 hours): The learning and teaching at the self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong After the session, participants will be able to:  a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system  b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students  c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree		18 th October 2011 – 1 st November 2011 (Tuesdays)
The Programme will have three sessions of two hours each making a total of 6 hours. The foci and learning outcomes of the three sessions are as followings:  Session 1 (2 hours): The learning and teaching at the self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong After the session, participants will be able to:  a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system  b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students  c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree		19 th October 2011 – 2 nd November 2011 (Wednesdays)
The Programme will have three sessions of two hours each making a total of 6 hours. The foci and learning outcomes of the three sessions are as followings:  Session 1 (2 hours): The learning and teaching at the self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong After the session, participants will be able to:  a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system  b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students  c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree Programme:  making a total of 6 hours. The foci and learning outcomes of the three sessions are as followings:  Session 1 (2 hours): The learning and teaching at the self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong After the session, participants will be able to:  a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system  b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students  c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree		Participants can enroll in any one of the class. the three sessions are as followings:  Session 1 (2 hours): The learning and teaching at the self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong After the session, participants will be able to:  a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system  b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students  c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree	Structure of the	The Programme will have three sessions of two hours each Session 1 (2 hours): The learning and teaching at the self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong After the session, participants will be able to:  a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system  b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students  c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree	Programme:	making a total of 6 hours. The foci and learning outcomes of self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong After the session, participants will be able to:  a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system  b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students  c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree		the three sessions are as followings:
self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong After the session, participants will be able to:  a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system  b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students  c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree <ul> <li>After the session, participants will be able to:</li> <li>a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system</li> <li>b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students</li> <li>c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree</li> </ul>		Session 1 (2 hours): The learning and teaching at the <ul> <li>a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sector within the Hong Kong education system</li> <li>b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students</li> <li>c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree</li> </ul>		self-financed sub-degree sector in Hong Kong <ul> <li>sector within the Hong Kong education system</li> <li>b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students</li> <li>c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree</li> </ul>		After the session, participants will be able to:
<ul> <li>b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students</li> <li>c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree</li> </ul>		a. Describe the position of the self-financed sub-degree sub-degree students c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree		sector within the Hong Kong education system
c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree		b. Identify the common expectations and learning styles of sub-degree students sector		c. Recognize the learning environment of the sub-degree sector

sign
to:
esign of learning rn differently
g learning activities own choice
ls
to:
of instructional skills g different
it least one chosen olled participants at knowledge and skills, ies to practice and cipations and